Lecture series by Prof. Geoffrey Bowker, professor of informatics, science and technology studies, UCI.

His research interests include classification systems, computer science, infrastructure, history of science, and science and technology studies. His main publications are Science on the Run, Sorting Things Out, and Memory Practices in the Sciences.

Contact (Prof. Masato Fukushima at the University of Tokyo):
maxiomjp@yahoo.co.jp

8 January (Fri.), 2016, 2:00 – 4:00pm
Classification as a Memory Practice: The Case of Biodiversity

14 January (Thurs.), 2016, 2:00 – 4:00pm
The Politics of Standards

22 January (Fri.), 2016, 2:00 – 4:00pm
Big Data: The Promise and Perils of Prediction or The Data Citizen

29 January (Fri.), 2016, 2:00 – 4:00pm
Infrastructuring: The Work of Building a Sociotechnical Infrastructure

Venue: Room 407, Bldg. 14, Komaba I Campus, The University of Tokyo

Please note that the lecture venue might be changed and the second lecture will be on Thursday.

Venue: 東京大学駒場Ⅰキャンパス14号館407教室

講義会場は暫定的ですが、変更の場合は再告知します。第2回目の講義は木曜日に行います。

---

His main publications are Science on the Run, Sorting Things Out, and Memory Practices in the Sciences.